Commissioners,

Good morning. The attached decision letter draft is ready for your review and feedback. Also included are the original complaint and response. I would note that this was Brandon's first decision letter draft, and he did excellent work. Please let either of us know if you have questions or concerns. As an "FYI," I also provided a copy of this draft to the DOJ attorneys representing the Commission in the Teigen case to ensure they did not see a conflict with the defenses being put forth in that matter. We will send this out if no feedback or special meeting requests are received by 4pm on Thursday, November 4th.

Regards,
